

City of Detroit
Department of Recreation Performance Audit
Exhibit 8 – Pittsburgh Baseball

Overall Evaluation – Good Condition

- Fields were chalked.
- Grass was neatly cut.
- Diamonds were neatly cut out to define the diamond.
- Fences and backstops were well-maintained.
- Adequate athletic mill (baseball infield surface material) was installed.

Frick Park Baseball Field, which was chalked, had neatly cut grass. Athletic mill was spread on the field to prevent injuries and the fence was well maintained.

City of Detroit
Department of Recreation Performance Audit
Exhibit 8 – Pittsburgh Baseball

Ammon Center Baseball Field was in good condition with a well-defined diamond, adequately maintained fences, no grass growing in the infield, and adequate athletic mill.

Ammon Center Baseball Field had with a well-maintained backstop, a well-defined diamond, adequate athletic mill and neatly cut grass.